APPENDIX 1

PROCESS FOR APPOINTING CO-OPTED GOVERNORS

There are two types of appointment.

1. LGB co-opted governors that have to be approved by trustees

- Governors request a personal statement of the candidate with relevant skills/experience included where possible as justification
- Governors discuss and agree whether a candidate would be suitable at an LGB meeting
- The appointment as an LGB co-opted governor is recommended to the trustees in the LGB minutes
- When the minutes are sent to the Clerk of the Trustees for the trust board meeting any such recommendations are highlighted so they can be identified for the board meeting (personal statement to be provided too)
- In the meantime (and in accordance with the regulations) the new candidate can attend any LGB meetings but will not be a governor and so will not have any formal voting rights until the trustees appoint them. Should any confidential items be discussed at the meeting the candidate must be asked to leave the meeting during this time.
- All trustee appointed governors are then noted in the Trustees Report that the Clerk to the Trustees issues after the meeting so that governors are notified

2. Trustee Appointed Governors

- Trustees request a personal statement of the candidate with relevant skills/experience included where possible as justification
- The proposed candidates are discussed and appointed (or not) at the next trustees' meeting
- All trustee appointed governors are then noted in the Trustees Report that the Clerk to the Trustees issues after the meeting so that governors are notified
